Barn Dance & Famous Feast

Hurst Morris People are holding their annual barn dance on Saturday February 25 at Hurst Village Hall from 7.30-11.30pm.

The organisers promise barn dancing that everyone will enjoy. Howard Ballard will provide easy to follow calling and music is by Chris, Patsy and friends.

Please bring a plate of finger food to share, helping produce the event's famous feast half way through the evening. Also please bring your own drinks. Tea, coffee and squash will be provided.

The hall is in School Road, Hurst, RG10 0DR. For tickets at £7.50, with under 12s free, please email: s.berrisford@yahoo.co.uk

Details are at www.Hump.org.uk

Presentation Evenings 2017

We are again able to make these a free entry to members but donations for a glass of wine at the end of the evening would be appreciated.

The first is

Tuesday 7th February at 8.pm

In the School Hall

The Cockleshell Raid

an illustrated talk by Dr Robert Lyman

The first one is the exciting story of the Cockleshell Heroes. Winston Churchill believed the mission shortened the Second World War by six months and Admiral Louis Mountbatten, the commander of Combined Operations, deemed the raid "the most courageous and imaginative of all the raids ever carried out by the men of Combined Operations."

Dr Robert Lyman, living in Shurlock Row, was born in New Zealand, educated in Australia and commissioned into the Light Infantry from the Royal Military Academy, Sandhurst. He was an officer in the British Army for twenty years.

NOT TO BE MISSED
