HVS FAMILY BBQ & CRICKET MATCH

Saturday 18th September

The posters for the HVS Family BBQ and Cricket Match vs. the PTA are now displayed around the village.

The bunting, made up of the Poster competitions entries, is now up on the St Nicholas School railings.

You can buy your ticket now on the PTA website for the BBQ and the cream tea.

Tickets are also available on the day for the BBQ only.

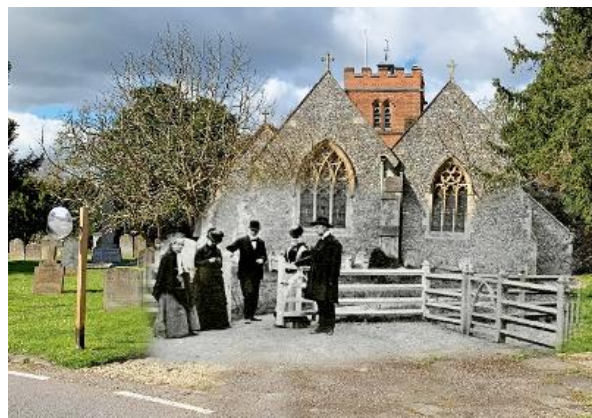

Launch of Hurst Archives AND History of Hurst book - Friday 15th October

HVS is delighted to announce that we have found a home for an archive of historic information about Hurst at Stanlake Park. As a result the information will be available for anyone to access at Stanlake Park shop initially by appointment. If you have any old maps, photos, information that you would like to donate please contact the HVS secretary.

The archives are going to be officially opened on Friday 15th October at 6.30pm by Historian Hugo Vickers.

History of Hurst book

The revised version of Henry Farrar's book, the History of Hurst, is now at the printers. It will be officially launched at the opening of the Hurst Archives at Stanlake on 15th October. They will be on sale at the HVS/PTA BBQ at the cricket club on 18 September, or can be ordered via the HVS website.

Hurst Panto

The Hurst Panto 'A Lad in the Wild West' is on for January 2022.

If you are interested in getting involved, Hurst Pantomime Group are holding an information meeting on Monday Sep 6th at 7.30pm in the Hurst Village Scout Hut.

Auditions are on Friday 10th September from 7.30pm (school year 9 upwards) and on Sunday 12th September from 1pm (school years 4 to 8), both in the Hurst Village Hall.

For more details, you can view the Hurst Panto Press Release here, or visit www.hurstpanto.org.uk

Hurst Parish Council

Get involved in Hurst life and go to the HPC meetings. These take place on the first Monday of every month.

The next meeting is on Monday 6th September at 7.30pm in the Hurst Village Hall.

All details are on the HPC website.

Planning

East of Lodge Road (Tape Lane)

The initial feedback window on the developer's website has now closed. HVS have written to the developers making it clear that we object to their proposal. A letter has also been sent to Theresa May. All information available to date (and both letters) are on the HVS website.

Other Planning

HVS have also been engaging with WBC on a number of planning matters. You can see all letters we have written on the HVS Planning Letter Page

If any Hurst resident has any views or concerns about planning in Hurst, do please email planning@hvs.org.uk.

Once any more information regarding the Tape Lane (or Broadcommon Road) proposals is available, we will send out a planning update newsletter.

August News - Hurst Horticultural Show

The Hurst Horticultural Show took place on Saturday 21st August in the Village Halls

Although the show was organised a short notice, it was well attended and there were 400 entrants.

Betty Smith (pictured with Keith Attfield) - a life long resident of Hurst - was the most successful entrant winning 4 cups and needed a box to take them away.
